

WE KNOW NEURO

MSWA welcomes Jemma Barsby as an ambassador

MSWA CEO Marcus Stafford AM is thrilled to announce professional Australian Cricketer Jemma Barsby as an official ambassador of the organisation.

Jemma has recently relocated to WA after signing with the Perth Scorchers for two seasons.

Jemma, who was diagnosed with multiple sclerosis (MS) at the age of 19, hopes to share her personal journey to inspire other young people.

“I hope to create awareness and encourage other young people who may have recently been diagnosed with a neurological condition to continue to achieve their goals.”

Mr Stafford welcomes Jemma to Western Australia on behalf of MSWA.

“As the incidence of MS has increased worldwide, we want to continue to raise awareness about MS and other neurological conditions.”

“We are really looking forward to working with Jemma and sharing her inspiring story.”

To read Jemma’s story click here.

For media interviews please contact Brand and Communications Manager, Libby Cassidy - Libby.Cassidy@mswa.org.au.

For more information please contact the Brand & Communications Team – communications@mswa.org.au